Dear George:

I know this is a surprise to you, getting a letter from us way down in Puerto Rico. But don't ever be too surprised at any thing that happens in the baseball.

I am writing mainly to ask you to do me a favor. I heard Quincy Troupe was down there with you, and I want to ask you to help me to get him to play with The Eagles next season. I have heard some team claims him, but if he will agree to come to us, I am sure I will be able to work out a trade with the team involved. I will make it worth your while if you can get him to come to us.

I am writing you now, because as you know it is not too soon to be getting your plans laid for next season. If I cannot get him, there will have to be other plans made, and I will have to get to work on them right away.

We are having a meeting of the two leagues in New York December 15th. I will appreciate it a lot if you let me hear from you before then. When does your season end down there? When do you expect to be back in the states? How is the baseball doing? Is there any good material there that we could use?

I am enclosing an envelope for an answer, hoping that will speed the reply. I sincerely hope you are having a good season.

Looking foward to hearing from you,

Very Truly Yours
